"The information I learned from the experts and banker participants at the 2006 S Corp Conference was invaluable. Any bank seriously considering an S Corp conversion should attend."

Ginger Martin, EVP and CFO, American National Bank

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 2007

1:00 PM - 7:00 PM

This insightful half-day session will feature practical consultative advice from bankers, attorneys, accountants and regulators focusing on S Corporation basics. Topics include the benefits of making an S Corporation election, shareholder reduction strategies, investment portfolio management and a view of S Corporations from the bank regulators' perspective. This session concludes with an opportunity to network with presenters and other attendees at a cocktail reception and dinner sponsored by the conference hosts.

FRIDAY MAY 11, 2007

8:00 AM - 3:30 PM

Throughout the day, speakers will share information and ideas regarding S Corporations including capital planning, employee retention and compensation strategies, tax savings tactics and legislative updates. Banker attendees will also participate in roundtable discussions to share tips on how to get the most benefit out of your S Corporation status.

Look for a detailed agenda and registration materials to arrive soon.
